

VARIETY OF NEWEST CULINARY EXPERIENCES IN KNOXVILLE

- Brixx Wood Fired Pizza - 7403 Kingston Pike, 10978 Parkside Drive
Brixx Wood Fired Pizza is a fun, friendly neighborhood restaurant that serves the best brick-oven pizzas around! Brixx also offers a fine selection of signature sandwiches, pastas, salads and desserts – there’s something for everyone. So, grab your family, a neighbor or friend and come kick back on the patio with a handcrafted pizza and microbrew or glass of wine. Brixx features 14 wines by the glass and 24 great beers on tap.
Recommendations: Spinach and Artichoke Dip, Roast Beef and Gorgonzola Sandwich, Barbecue Chicken pizza, Chicken Florentine pizza, Bronx Bomber pizza, pastas, Tiramisu
More information: www.brixxpizza.com West Hills - (865) 474-9971 Turkey Creek - (865) 288-4186
- The Crown and Goose - 123 S. Central Street
Check out Knoxville’s only authentic London Gastropub and beer garden in the Old City. The Crown & Goose combines the cozy and comfortable ambience of a pub along with our passion for amazing food and service. The fusion of traditional British and modern European food, along with our exclusive ales, traditional pub environment, and people passionate about service make the Crown & Goose a gathering place worthy of the term “gastropub”.
Recommendations: Fish & Chips, Henry VIII Shepherd’s Pie, Authentic Bangers & Mash, Irish Whiskey Marinated Dublin Steak Sandwich, Slow Braised Beef Short Ribs, Guanaja Chocolate & Pecan Tar, Whiskey Soaked Craisin Bread Pudding, Sticky Toffee Pudding
More information: www.thecrownandgoose.com (865) 524-2100
- Dazzo’s Italian Pizzeria Restaurant - 710 S. Gay Street
Owner Gavin Loyer's history of making pizza in Long Island comes through with authentic pies, both Neapolitan and Sicilian. Sauce lovers should be sure to try the "Grandma's" pizza, which is topped with a garlic-herb sauce. Also available is a full selection of pastas, Italian entrees like eggplant rollatino, seafood, and hero sandwiches.
Recommendations: "Grandma's" pizza, Stuffed Meat Pie, sandwiches, calzones, Tiramisu,
More information: (865) 525-2105

- La Costa - 31 Market Square

Deemed a “New South” eatery fused with Latino cuisine, LaCosta is unlike any other restaurant you’ve ever experienced. One of the first accredited “Green” restaurants in the nation, the menu features organic produce, free-range beef and chicken and non-farm seafood. Everything is prepared fresh daily. Along with its modern and cozy décor, the restaurant has an extensive wine and tequila selection, and the margaritas are the best in the area.

Recommendations: Peppered Jumbo Shrimp and Cheese Grits, White Cheese and Spinach Dip, Pan-Roast Free-Range Chicken Breast, Smoked Paprika Roasted Lamb Rack.

More information: www.lacostaonmarketsquare.com, (865) 566-0275
- LaParilla Mexican Restaurant - 11639 Parkside Drive

With a menu of delicious Mexican dishes to choose from, everyone is sure to leave happy. They offer succulent enchiladas, juicy and tender fajitas, quesadillas, burritos and nachos all cooked to perfection and served in a beautiful atmosphere just like in sunny Mexico! Check out their catering options as well.

Recommendations: Queso Fundido con Chorizo, Chimi Rica, Baja Fajitas, enchiladas

More information: www.laparrilla.com (865) 966-3001
- S&W Grand - 516 S. Gay Street

Bringing new back to an old staple, the S&W Grand is downtown’s newest restaurant. Housed in the S&W Cafeteria’s refurbished building, those dining here are sure to be impressed by the classic food served in a nostalgic setting. This is southern comfort food at its best.

Recommendations: “Slim’s” Burger, Fresh Atlantic Salmon Cake, Veal Meatloaf, Baked Spaghetti Pie, Country Fried Steak

More information: www.swgrand.com (865) 566-9800
- The Tin Roof - 1915 Cumberland Ave.

Customers at the new Tin Roof love their laid-back feel and live entertainment—not to mention their made from scratch food served up by a friendly and eclectic staff. They pride themselves in being a bar that doesn’t serve “bar food.” They’ve got fresh salads, great quesadillas, giant sandwiches and award-winning appetizers. They even make their own salsa, guacamole and marinades—all from scratch.

Recommendations: Cheese Fries, Award Winning Cheese Dip, Chicken Tender Basket, Famous Wings, sandwiches, quesadillas,

More information: www.tinroofbars.com (865) 247-4355

